BOOKS: AUTHORS: PUBLISHERS---NEWS: REVIEWS: COMMENTS

Public Affairs in Peace and War-New Works of Fiction and Miscellany

Our Southern Ally Timely Book About Brazil,

Present and Future TO DAY AND TO MORROW, By L. E. Bourrest, Evo. 10, 12, 223. The The practical alignment of the great-

MOVELS YOU'LL ENJOY

SOUTH SEA

PLUNDER HE DE VERE STACPOOLE asther of "The Gold Trail," "The Blue Lagoon," etc.

Cloth, $1.30 uet A South Sea tale that has the real flavor of daredevil adventure and is as thrilling as the best of

THE WANDERER THOUSAND HILLS

By EDITH WHERRY Athor of "The Red Lantern." Cloth, $1.40 mm

A dramatic narrative of a youth of English parentage who was wought up as a Chinese. The mendor, the glamour, and the rosame of the Oriental World are with sincerity, rare power, and reality. AN AMERICAN

THE END OF THE FLIGHT

By BURTON KLINE Aethor of "Struck by Lightning." Cloth, $1.50 met.

The story of a young man who, legging the Harvard Law School with a stout will, a large ability and a battling silence, sees a quickr success in a small inland town than in a great city. A FRANCO-AMERICAN

MR. CUSHING AND

MLLE. DU CHASTEL By FRANCES RUMSEY Cloth, $1.49 net.

Daring in idea, masterful in peratment and beautiful in phrasing this is the first real Inter-minal novel since "The Amer-ian" of Henry James. HART VS. HEAD

MAGPIE'S NEST

By ISABEL PATERSON author of "The Shadow Riders."

Cloth, $1.40 mer. A well told, straightforward ro-A well told, straightforward romance of a young girl of Northwestern Canada who adventured of in search of happiness. "A well planned story with literary definess. . will sustain the regulation Mrs. Paterson established with "The Shadow Riders."

—New York Sun.

A QUEST FOR HAPPINESS

MMUTUA By MURIEL HINE

Author of "The Individual," "Earth," etc. Cloth, $1.40 net

With charm of diction and skillal character delineation the auther works out the problem of the tumn and a girl in the springtime

OF ALL BOOKSELLERS

JOHN LANE CO. NEW YORK

An indispensable Book for Housekeepers. Tells how to Live High at Low Cost

GET IT TO-DAY! er Books Are Sold. $1.15 met. RENRY HOLT & CO., New York.

FOR YOUR Military Text Books

AS FOR ALL BOOKS PUBLISHED GO TO

Malkan's

New York's Largest Book Store 2B'way 55 New St. Phone Broad 3900-1-2

APP LATTERS ROUGHT AND SOLD.

BOGAN 21 PIPTH AVE. N. Y. C.,

ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH LETTERS

SOL PEOPLE. LETTERS OF THE

SOL PEOPLE. LETTERS OF THE

SOL PEOPLE. LETTERS OF THE

SOL PEOPLE. ALSO BOOKS WITH

APPLIES ALSO BOOKS WITH

APPLIES ALSO BOOKS WITH

APPLIES CALL OR WRITE. P. F.

SOL PIPTH AVE. N. Y. C.

AU-OUT-OF PRINT-BUOKS 16 EAST 40TH ST., NEW YORK

16 EAST 40TH ST., NEW YORK

16 EAST 40TH ST., NEW YORK

18 EAST 40TH ST., NEW YORK

18 EAST 40TH ST., NEW YORK

19 Stripe book. HANKEL'S GREAT

THE MADNESS of MAY

By MEREDITH NICHOLSON

New York Tribune says: "We're

New York Tribune says: "We're going to read it again next month to see if it will not infect us with its irresistible and enchanting madness. There are few things in it that are not screamingly impossible; just as impossible as 'Alice in Wonderland,' but so much the worse for possibility. There is certainly not a thing in it, though mad as a hatter and a March hare in one, which we would willingly have omitted, or which does not immensurably increase the sheer joy of living."

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

Arthur James Balfour's

latest book

THEISM

HUMANISM "One of the greatest philosophic discussions of modern times"

"marks an epoch in the discussion of theistic thinking"-"without doubt the most notable contribution to philosophy in recent years." From the reviewers.

At all Booksellers, net $1.75

George H. Doran Company

Publishers, New York

rentano

NEW YORK 52 AVE at 272 St.

Booksellers to the World

EL SUPREMO

By Edward Lucas White

The Greatest and Biggest Novel of

the Year

H. W. Boyston in the Nation: "A listorical romance upon the great scale (ouch of genius which gives to "El upremo," this first notable work of this merican storyteller, its unmistakable util for the reader. A story of unflag-

net. Postage extra. All Bookstores

All Books of which they are most numerous the Germans are greatly outnumbered by Italians. Of the latter nationality 1.361.266 entered Brazil down to the end of 1915, and these, with their off-spring, now number more than two millions; exceeding the Germans by fully eight to one. with the United States in the war with Germany gives peculiar timeliness to this handsome and encyclopedic work. Few people in this country probably realize the magnitude, the potential wealth and the actual splendor of Brazil. It will be worth their while to brave, so resolute and so resourceful.

A greater drive than that is now in progress. But never before or since have we seen more desperate fighting than that of last July. And we are not sure that we shall have any more perfect account of it than Mr. Gibbs has given us in his crowded pages. Here are all the giory and the terror, all the humor and the pathos, all the heroism and the devastation of the battlefield. The grim, ungainly antics of the "tanks," the dashing daring of the aviators, the stubborn resistance of the men in the trenches, all are set forth in phrases which seem to transport the reader to the very battle-front, it is war translated from the fields of the Somme to the pages of a book.

of an average infantry private, and gives a glimpse of the spirit and endurance that have made the New Armies more than a match for the

Author of "Between the Lines" "Action Front"

MISTRESS

By Temple Bailey

The heart-story of a Maryland schoolmistress—and of two men, a writer and a physician, who came to the little country town of Crossroads. It is a cheery, wholesome story—the kind you finish with a sigh and lend at once to a dear friend. Jacket by Boileau. Illustrations by F. Vaux Wilson.

$1.35 net-all bookstores

The Penn Publishing Company Philadelphia

WOMAN

By Vance Thompson

Childe Dorr says: have written such a book. It had to grow out of the awakened conscience of a man. E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

THE FORD

Mary Austin

porary life that will put it high among American novels. Illustrated. $1.50 net. At All Bookstores

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN COMPANY

Mr. Oppenheim's Powerful Romance of the Cumberland Hills THE HILLMAN. By E. Phillips Opponhelm.
With Illustrations by George Axison. 12mo, 199.
338. Little, Brown & Co.

It is an attractive and inspiring picture which the author presents of the great southern republic, and it is a truthful one, backed up with facts and figures far more impressive than any mere speculations and empty boastings could be.

("Cinderella Jane": Doubleday, Page & Co.)

Pelion on Ossa, with the captain's resourcefulness triumphantly surmounting them all. It is a tale of red blood and bounding pulses, gripping the interest from the impasse of something worse than tragedy, behold! A word sets all things right, solves every mystery, "and vindicates the ways of God to man" or, not to be irreverent, the ways of woman; which does not always necessarily mean the exact opposite of the other. And the artistic beauty of it all is that in this felicitous ending, in which they are married and live happily ever after, there is not the slightest auspicion of the trite or the commonplace. Indeed, that happy solution is even more grippingly dramatic than a tragedy or a sacrifice or any other conceivable ending could be. Moreover, while again and again the story involves the frankest consideration of the most intimate relations of life, there is nowhere so much as a hint at that which is prurient or unclean. The braching breeze of the Cumberland hills blows through it all.

From this the reader may glean that which is prurient or unclean. The braching breeze of the Cumberland hills blows through it all.

From this the reader may glean that which is prurient or unclean. The braching breeze of the Cumberland hills blows through it all.

From this the reader may glean that which is prurient or unclean. The braching breeze of the Cumberland hills blows through it all.

From this the reader may glean that which is prurient or unclean. The braching breeze of the Cumberland hills blows through it all.

From this the reader may glean that which is prurient or unclean. The braching breeze of the Cumberland hills blows through it all.

From this the reader may glean that which is prurient or unclean. The braching breeze of the Cumberland hills blows through it all.

From this the reader may glean that which is prurient or unclean. The braching provience and supplience and profane history, rever some as "Dracula."

"It is a book to be read, not, may be, when alone, or just before going to bed, because it is the kind of a book which you put down only for the purpose of turning up the gas and making sure that no person or thing is standing behind your chair."—The Graphic.

"Edgar Allan Poe never wrote anything more fascinatingly horrible than Richard Marsh's story, The Beetle." —Rochester Post Express.

"A story of the most terrific kind is recorded in this ex-tremely powerful book. The skill with which its fantastic horrors are presented to us is undeniable."—The Speaker. 3d Large Printing Since Feb. 1st. All Booksellers, $1.50 not.

_Putnams. New York

Germany gives and encry.

Few people in this country preservality the manipulation of the country preservation of the country and themselves intimalely adult the acquaint themselves intimalely adult the garden for the country in the capture of the country in the restrict of the present time, the country in the country i the same reason as that for which Shakespeare killed off Mercutio? Well, every reader of the book will be sorry. There were almost infinite possibilities of fun in the "kid." However, it's a sprightly and entertaining story.

cutting adventure for conspirators who seek to use the cable for their own purposes in advance of an expected declaration of war. In the very act of "cutting in" they learn that they are too late, war having already been declared; whereupon Captain Blood takes things into his own strenuous hands and deals with his late employers and others on a belligerent basis, only to find out that it was a false alarm and that there is no war. Of course, he is in an awful scrape, having done things which, permissible in war, in time of peace are flat piracy. Complications are piled, Pelion on Ossa, with the captain's resourcefulness triumphantly surmounting them all. It is a tale of red blood Pelion on Ossa, with the captain's re-sourcefulness triumphantly surmount-ing them all. It is a tale of red blood and bounding pulses, gripping the inter-true to life, in the retired gambler and in the Rhadamanthine district attorney. But let that pass. The point is that it is a tale of absorbing interest, excellently told. Not least of all, it is rich with real, spontaneous humor; which is as precious in a tale as melody is in an opera.

It is a "human interest" story in the true sense of the term. There is seriousness and there are those whom it is a joy to know. There are unpleasant persons and there are those whom it is a joy to know. There are innumerable incidents, natural, but not trite nor commonplace. There is human nature all the way through. And what book deserves to have more said of it than that?

Brummagem Bohemia

CINDERELLA JANE By Marjorie Benton Cooke With colored frootispiece. 12mo, pp. 367. Doubleday, Page & Co.

When we read nine-tenths of the stories which are written about "Greenwich Village" and the "Washington Square Colony" we are mightily moved to declare with the bucolic circus-goer. "There ain't no such animile." Here, however, it a tale of which that indescribably misrepresented region is in fact merely incircus and the colored frootispiece in the stories which are written about "Greenwich Village" and the "Washington Square Colony" we are mightily moved to declare with the bucolic circus-goer. "There ain't no such animile." Here, however, it a tale of which that indescribably misrepresented region is in fact merely incircus and the colored frootispiece in the stories which are might as well as the other side of the footights it will be a revelation, and a valuable one, giving them a more just appreciation of the labor involved in preparing a play for their delectation.

Brief Notices

Brief Notices

Recent Publications and New Editions

In "Serbia: A Sketch," Miss Helen In "Serbia: A Sketch," Miss Helen Leah Reed gives us an attractive, in structive and interesting outline of Serbian history and character study of the Serbian people. It is a small volume, but it contains a large amount of information and also much inspiration toward sympathy and aid for the marryred Baikan kingdom. Written and published for the Serbian Distress Fund, it should be of double benefit thereto, adding to its financial resources and enlisting sympathetic interest in its behalf. In all respects it is to be cordially commended.

Odell Shepard, in his little volume

Near-Piracy

SEA PLYNDER By H. De Vere Starpoole. 12mo, pp. 313. The John Lane Company.

Captain Blood is a free lance of the sea, ready for any commission which promises profit and which does not too greatly transgress the law. In the present case he undertakes a cable-cutting adventure for conspirators who seek to use the cable for their own purposes in advance of an expected deals.

which is prefere of the Cumberland hills blows through it all.

From this the reader may plean that the front his the reader may plean that the front his the reader may plean that the first may be the first may reation of such an object of the countaining strength throughout the country, and it is to be expected that this impressive volume of Mr. Goldman's will materially promote its progress.

Behind the Footlights

PLAY PRODUCTION IN AMERICA. By Arthur Edwin Krows. With bibliography index and many illustrations. See pp. 1, 414. Henry Hot & Co.

By BERTHA WHITRIDGE SMITH

The autobiography of an Irish terrier, an appealing story by one who understands dogs. The volume is dedicated to Americans devoting their lives to the relief of suffering in Europe, and all royalties from its sale in the United States will be given by the author to the "National Surgical Dressings Committee.'

Price $1.00 net. Postage extra. At all Bookstores. E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Ave., New York

When Elaine Sterne wrote-

she did a smashing piece of

This is a man's book. Likewise, a woman's book.

Ambition

It's the story of a big man's destiny. A story for the masses and

The Road of the classes. T is full of the lure of the great steel industry. Newport, Back Bay, Nob Hill, Fifth Avenue, and the Lake Shore Drive will find within its pages the living, forward forces which keep the world from going back. And to fiction lovers everywhere, Elaine Sterne's story of "Big Bill", fighting his way up, will be a veritable inspiration. It's a great novel.

At all bookstores. $1.35 net.

BRITTON

PUBLISHING COMPANY, NEW YORK

P. S. – Don't overlook the fact that Annie Fellows Johnston's "Georgina of the Rainbows," after a season's success, is right now selling near the top.

Pincher Martin, O.D.

By "TAFFRAIL"

Here at last is a book that does for Britain's navy what Captain Ian Hay Beith's "The First Hundred Thousand" did for her army. The author-himself a naval officer-tells the story of an English sailor and his experiences in the present war, first on a battleship and after that is blown up on a torpedo-boat destroyer that has, as he says, "a front seat" in the great Jutland battle.

If you want to know what life on a fighting ship in war time is like, this book will tell you vividly, convincingly, and with a lighthearted humor that throws into even greater relief the description of hardships and heroisms.

At all bookstores. Illustrated. $1.50 net.

16 E. 40th St. Houghton Mifflin Co. New York

IN THE CLAWS OF THE GERMAN EAGLE

By ALBERT RHYS WILLIAMS Special War Correspondent of THE OUTLOOK

THE MOST HUMAN BOOK OF THIS MOST INHUMAN WAR. Some winced and cried aloud, others turned white with terror, still others laughed defiant to the end. Caught in the Claws the author tells of the torments he shared with these prisoners, in his trial as a spy before the German Military Court in Brussels. There were other victims—the little Belgian soldier who said, "You betcha I'm a 'Merican' "—the one who played roulette in the face of death—and the American girl who braved every danger to see her officer. Later he was killed, and so she became the forerunner of the hosts of American women now destined to suffer IN THE CLAWS OF THE GERMAN EAGLE. There is humor in the expose of the faking of war pictures and a social insight which appeals "to those who see beyond the red mists of war."

Illustrated. $1.50 Net. Postage Extra. At All Bookstores.

E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 Fifth Avenue, New York

Antony Gray, Gardener by Leslie Moore

Author of "The Peacock Feather"

Where there's a will, there is often trouble as well as a way, and the will of eccentric old Nicholas Danver brought much trouble indeed to Antony Gray, his heir. In the story of how Antony's own determined will found the way out for him, all of Leslie Moore's charming telling and sympathetic skill in weaving a love story are brought.

At All Booksellers.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS

The Slaying of Fear.

A Book That Is Gripping England By DONALD HANKEY Introduction by J. St. Loe Strachey, Editor of The London Spectator

The London Christian Outlook, March 1, 1917, in an article headed "The Slaying of Fear," says:—"'A Student in Arms' presents to us the sublime spectacle of an army of which practically every unit has slain fear. There is no greater deed in the moral and spiritual world than this. Every parent who has a boy at the front would like to believe that in the face of death he had the sustaining vision that the 'Student' describes Price $1.50 net. Postage extra. At All Bookstores.

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Avenue, New York

A THE ME HE WE NOT HER WE WE WE WE NOT HE WE MUTTER HER WE WE NOT HE WE WE WE WE WE WE WENT A Romance of present day California

In this powerful and absorbing novel Mrs. Austin has done for certain parts of California what Eden Phillpotts has done for Dartmoor, and Arnold Bennett for the Five Towns. There is a vitality in the character drawing, a sense of abounding youth and romance in the love episodes, and above all a graphic strength in its portrayal of contem-

Love and Life

Marjorie Benton Cooke